Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals of more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients complained of. Recognizing this fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which his popular medicines are composed. Thus he has completely forestalled all harping critics and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are NOW OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, as in obstinate cases of diseases, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants, Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine, which of itself is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs. As will be seen from the writings of the eminent Drs. Grover Coe, of New York; Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, Phila.; Scudder, of Cincinnati; Ellingwood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in their several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of not only bronchial, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrh in all its various forms wherever located.

BURNING OF A STEAMER.

The steamer Hankow burned at her wharf at Hong Kong early yesterday morning. Hundreds of Chinese—men, women and children—perished and, the scenes aboard were agonizing, the shrieks of the victims rising above the roar of the flames and the din occasioned by efforts to save the unfortunates. With escape cut off, a fierce panic seized the 2,000 Celestials aboard and many lost their lives in the crush to reach the deck, being thus spared a more horible death. Others who managed to struggle to the deck, finding themselves beset by flames, jumped overboard and were drowned.

The Hankow, with 2,000 Chinese passengers and 7 Europeans, and a cargo included 300 bales of matting, 560 bales of raw silk and 400 bales of waste silk, arrived from Canton at 3 o'clock yesterday morning and shortly afterward moored at the warf.

Her chief officer reported to Captain Branch that the ship was afire. The captain then directed the chief engineer to turn on the water through the fire hose. This was impossible for the reason that within five minutes after the alarm had been given the Hankow was ablaze fore and aft.

Captain Branch then awakened the European passengers, who rushed down the gangway, the ladies in their night clothes.

The crew was compelled to leave the ship, which by this time was a vertitable furnace. The Chinese sterrage passengers were thrown into a frightful panic. Horrifying shrieks and cries to save their lives were heard, but aid could not reach them, owing to the inflammable nature of the cargo.

Responding to signals from the British cruiser Flora, the naval dockyard dispatched contingents of engines and assistance. The land and floating brigades of firemen made herculean efforts to extinguish the flames, which lesped to a height of more than 60 feet

The fire was brought under control at 6 a. m., at which time only the shell and hull of the Hankow remained. The gruesome work of recovering the dead was then begun. The fire fighters have already recovered 75 corpses. Many of them were huddled together and only singed, while others were incinerated beyond recognition.

There are many theories as to the cause of the fire. The first is that the blaze was due to the overturning of the lantern of a chinese boarding-house runner who came aboard seeking customers. The second was that an opium smoker accidentally set fire to matting; the third is that it was caused by the crossing of electric wires. A fourth theory, and one that is considered the most probable, is that the the fire was incendiary and was an outgrowth of a boycott against British river boats.

Killed in Automobile Accident.

An automobile accident, in which Louis Lieber, a chauffeur of New York, was killed and R. Fulton Cutting's two daughters saved themselves by jumping, occurred Saturday evening in the vicinity of Newburg, N. Y.

It was on one of the E. H. Harriman roads recently built along the eastern cliff of a section of the Ramapo range, near the new incline railway which leads to the new $1,000,000 residence now under construction for Mr. Harriman. W. H. McClellan, treasurer for Arden Forms' chain of stores in Orange county, saw an antomobile passing by as though running wild. He jumped into his machine and gave chase, but Lieber, in a Renault high-power runabout owned by C. B. Sloan, was not to be overtaken.

Through the wild mountain road, seventy-five feet above the meadows, at a sixty-mile clip, went Lieber, evidently making a record run from New York to Newburg. This piece of road has many sharp turns. At one of these the Misses Cutting, in Mr. Cutting's Laudellette car, with Chauffeur Dunn at the wheel, bound for Tuxedo, came like a flash in front of Lieber. The road being narrow, passing at such a speed was out of the question.

Mr. Dunn accepted the situation shouted to the ladies to hold on and went tearing up the mountainside, crashing into the rocks and catching to a tree by one forward wheel, which saved the car from turning and rolling down the mountainside.

The ladies jumped, but were not hurt. Lieber's only hope was the brake. This he applied, but with the terrific speed the car turned completely around, struck the rocks at the edge of the cliff and turned over, landing full upon the driver's chest, making a deep wound and wrecking the machine.

The car was raised and Lieber was released. He was placed in the Cutting car, and there was another wild run to Tuxedo, where Chauffeur Dunn, taking the dying man in his arms, proceeded to the office of Dr. Wise, only to find that he was too late. Mr. Lieber had breathed his last while in Mr. Dunn's arms.

It is said that the brakes had refused to work well of late on the left side, and the accident is attributed to this cause.

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing This Fatal Disease.

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, chronic kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Lydia E. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhausive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the loins, backache, bearing-down pains, scalding or burning sensations or deposits in the urine, unusual thirst, swelling of hands and feet, swelling under the eyes or sharp pains in the back, running through the groin, she may infer that her kidneys are affected and should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

The following letters show how marvelously successful it is.

Mrs. Samuel Frake, of Prospect Plains, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years with what the doctor called kidney trouble and congestion of the female organs. My back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered so with that bearing-down feeling I could hardly walk across the room. I did not get any better, so decided to stop doctoring with my physician and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am thankful to say it has entirely cured me. I do all my own work, have no more backache and all the bad symptoms have disappeared.

I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all women suffering with kidney trouble to try it.

Mrs. J. W. Lang, of 626 Third Avenue, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

I have been a great sufferer with kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and I was discouraged. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure kidney disease, and I began to take it; and it has cured me when everything else had failed. I have recommended it to lots of people and they all praise it very highly.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness, are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky., He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. MAXIM GORKY, the Russian author and socialist, together with his "companion," Mme. Andrieva, sailed from New York Saturday on the steamship Princess Irene for Naples and Genoa under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Pickhoff. Gorky refused to state what his opinion of America and Americans is, while his "companion" said that "Americans did not understand—thats all." But Americans do understand, and that is the reason Gorky and the woman who masqueraded as his wife were snubbed and left severely alone by respectable people just as soon as it became known that the woman was not his wife. Their traveling together in this country as man and wife while Gorky's wife was living in Russia, was a piece of arrogant and insulting impudence and by right they should have been arrested and imprisoned for indecent conduct.

THE NEW Danish tariff bill reduces the duty on necessities and increases the rates on luxuries and places on the free list petroleum, salt, coal, chemicals, gums, tar, tallow, hoop and bar iron and thread. The United States Congress persists in retaining a prohibitive duty on necessities so that the protected trusts can control prices and maintain them at the highest point possible, and allows luxuries like diamonds and champagne to be imported at low rates. If voters feel that the greatly increased cost of living, by reason of the tariff protecting the trusts from competition, has not been made up to them by increased wages or greater profits in business, the opportunity to revise the tariff is now open by voting for the democratic candidate for Congress, who is pleged to revision, instead of the republican candidate who is pleged to stand pat.

AN URGENT call for more troops in the Philippines is made by Major General Leonard Wood in a report which the War Department has just received. His argument is so strong that it has set the general staff by the ears. Some of the statements in the report are so radical that it is certain that nothing like a peaceful condition can be expected in the archipelago for years to come, possibly not until the present generation of Filipinos has been exterminated. This has been predicted by the knowing ones since the beginning. On June 30 there were 20,048 men in garrison at various points in the islands. General Wood declares he must have artillery and at least one squadron from each of the cavalry organizations of the United States army.

SUIT for $15,000 damages was brought at Norristown, Pa., Saturday against Dr. Ellwood Corson, one of the oldest and leading physicians of the town, by Patrick Naylon. The latter alleges that his wife fell and fractured her arm, and that Dr. Corson stated there was no fracture and treated the arm accordingly. He further alleges that Mrs. Naylon's hand is now badly deformed and she may never have the proper use of it. Suits like these are calculated to make physicians a little more careful in their diagnoses.

ABOUT the only friends of the trusts are the friends of the tariff; and these friends of the tariff would never revise it in the interest of the people. Yet they are crying out that the tariff should be revised only by the friends of the people instead of the friends of the trusts? And wouldn't it be better to revise it now than at some indefinite future time? "The present time's so sick that present medicine must be ministered" to aid those who are suffering from the protected trusts' high prices.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 15.

United States Supreme Court today denied the motion for a rehearing in the case of former Senator Joseph Ralph Burton, of Kansas, convicted of practicing for pay before the Postoffice Department while a Senator of the United States. He will now have to serve six months imprisonment in the Iron county Mo., jail and pay the $2,500 fine assessed by the federal court at St. Louis. The court last May sustained the verdict of the lower court, but Burton's attorneys obtained leave to file a motion for rehearing. Today's action disposes finally of the case and removes any possible chance of Burton's legally escaping punishment.

The Department of Justice has decided to investigate thoroughly the charges of the existence of slavery in several Southern states. Assistant Attorney General Russell, will leave Thursday for Alabama and then go on to Florida. Miss Emma Sterling, of Tampa, Secretary of the Humane Society of Florida, who came here in person to secure the governments assistance in eradicating the evil which she says exists in an aggravated form, is going over the case very carefully with Mr. Russel today.

For the first time in its history, the Supreme Court of the United States today found itself called upon to consider a lynching case. Behind this tragedy are the race troubles of the South. Sheriff J. F. Shipp, of Chattanooga, Tenn., the principal defendant, and nine deputies and seventeen alleged members of a mob were cited to show cause today why they should not be judged in contempt because Ed Johnson, a negro rapist, was lynched by this mob after he had been given a stay of execution by the Supreme Court of the United States. Judge McReynolds, who tried the negro, is in Washington giving his moral support to Shipp. "The impression seems to be," said Judge McReynolds this morning, "that the people of Chattanooga are doubtfull about the guilt of Johnson, and that they condemn Sheriff Shipp. This is not so. That the electors of Hamilton county are loyal to Captain Shipp and believe he did his full duty on the night Johnson was hanged is evidenced by the fact that last August he was re-elected sheriff by a majority of 1,500, the greatest ever given a candidate for the office." The answer filed by Judge Harmon for Sheriff Shipp and his deputies raised the question of jurisdiction. In the answer the defendants maintain that they should not be required to answer before the Supreme Court of the United States "because they are advised and believe that said charges, even if true, would be, and ought to be treated as crimes under the laws of Tennessee." They answer that they have done nothing against the authority or dignity of the Supreme Court of the nation but are cognizable only by the Supreme Court of Tennessee, which, they maintain, has full power and authority. They claim that the petition for a writ of habeas corpus was not filed by Johnson in good faith; that the Circuit Court of the United States had no authority to entertain the petition, as, they say it would interfere with the proceedings of the State court. They finally enter a denial of the charges against them.

The answer of the Sheriff and his deputies was filed first and those of the other defendants were presented to the court separately. The other defendants enter general denials of the charges of lynching the negro.

The question of jurisdiction being raised all the proceedings have been postponed in order to allow the Department of Justice time to prepare a reply. Solicitor General Hoyt said he could not be prepared to continue the case until December.

President Roooevelt received a call this morning from a delegation of Chicago commission men who are in town to protest against the course of the express companies entering their city in refusing to handle carcasses of calves killed by the farmers along their lines of route. According to the commission men the express companies are playing into the hands of the big packing concerns by refusing to ship to the Chicago market calves which do not bear the government stamp. Before calling upon the President the Chicago protestants visited the Department of Agriculture and asked Secretary Wilson if the express companies were acting within the law in refusing to handle the farmers' meat products. The Secretary assured them that there is nothing in the meat inspection regulations which revuires the express companies to make such a ruling.

Senator Allee, of Delaware, today accompanied his colleague, Senator Dupont, to the White House to present him to the President. Senator Dupont was elected while absent in Europe and this was the first occasion he has had to present his respects to the Chief Executive since his return. He said that he was no longer connected with the Dupont Powder Company, which was under investigation by the Senate appropriations committee last session.

Solicitor General Hoyt made a motion in the Supreme Court of the United States today to advance the hearing in the fertilizer trust cases to as late a day as possible before the Thanksgiving holidays. The motion was taken under consideration. The case is on habeas corpus proceedings in which the defendants seek to avoid trial in Tennessee.

Negro College Dynamited.

Harrell College, a negro institution at Seneca, was blown up by dynamite about midnight Friday. J.F. Williams, a negro minister, is president of the college, and it is supported by Northern white people. He went to Seneca from Abbeville several years ago, and it is said, made himself objectionable to the white people. He advised the negroes not to work for the white people. A letter of warning was sent him to leave Seneca, but he ignored it. Dynamite cartridges were placed under each corner of the college building by unknown parties, and when the clock struck midnight the dynamite was exploded, partially wrecking the building.

With a deafening report a boiler of the government boat Slackwater exploded late Saturday, at Pittsburg, completely wrecking the vessel, killing three men, injuring six others and creating havoc in Lock No. 4, where the boat was lying when the accident happened. A derrick boat lying alongside the steamer and some reconstruction work being done at the dam was considerably damaged by the explosion.

The leaving of a favorite at the post resulting in one of the worst riots in the history of the French turf at the Longchamps course yesterday. Men and women were assailed and injured, shots were fired, and the mob, in the excess of its fury, resorted to incendiarism, joyfully burning the betting booths and twice attempting to set fire to the grand stand. The cause of the rioting was the crowd's belief that there had been a false start.

Benjamin F. E. Bauscher in an application for a divorce filed in Reading, Pa., deplores an unusal condition of affairs. Since May 30, 1899, he alleges that his wife, Ellen, has refused to speak to him. They were married at Norristown October 19, 1871, coming to Reading, where they have since resided. Nine years ago, he says, her treatment forced him to leave her and two years later she forgot that she ever knew him, having treated him since as a total stranger.

The seventeen-months-old baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Rhodes, of Chamberlin, S. D., had a narrow escape from being carried away to be fed to eagles Saturday. The little girl was left to play while her mother went about her household duties. Soon the mother heard the child scream, and running to the door, saw a great eagle with its claws fastened in the baby's dress. The woman seized a broom and ran at the bird, which flapped its wings in her face and held on to the baby. The woman hammered away at the bird until it dropped the child and flew away.

An unhappy love affair made life seem not worth living to Jesse Cress, 21 years old, of Roxborough, Pa., and he was found dead in bed early yesterday with the gas turned on. The tip of the gas burner had been removed and the windows and keyhole stuffed with cotton. Cress was engaged to a wealthy Germantown girl, whom he met while traveling as an attendant to her invalid father. For a time the young man's suit prospered, but a lover's quarrel and opposition on the part of the girl's father led to a separation. Cress brooded over the affair until he finally determined to commit suicide.

After bidding members of his family good-bye yesterday afternoon, James A. Jones, aged forty-one years, of 1231 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, went to the corner of Pennsylvania avenue and Thirteenth street southeast and slashed his throat with a small penknife, making a wound that is not considered serious. The act was witnessed by May, his sixteen-year-old daughter, who had followed her father from the house. Jones, family recently moved to Washington from Maryland. It is said he has recently worried a great deal over financial matters, and to this is attributed his attempt to end his life.

Dead from exposure, hidden among the rushes of Gray Duck Bay, several miles below Detroit, Mich., the bodies of Stephen A. Stuart, aged forty-one, and Mrs. Mary Caldwell, aged thirty-five, his sister-in-law, were found yesterday morning. Stuart's body was on the floor of the boat. The woman still gripped an oar, showing that she had continued the struggle after Stuart fell exhausted. Her head was hanging over the side of the boat. They left Ford, a suburb, Saturday to fish. The boat was blown down the river, and that night the thermometer dropped to 25 degrees above zero. It is believed they drifted into the bay, were unable to extricate themselves in the darkness and succumbed to the cold.

Cuba.

At noon Saturday Secretary Taft transferred the government of Cuba to Charles E. Magoon, the only formality being the publication of a gazette extraordinary, in which the outgoing governor stated: "By direction and with the authority of the President of the United States, I hereby lay down the office of provisional governor of Cuba, assumed by me August 29, and turn the same over to Charles E. Magoon, my successor."

In his proclamation Governor Magoon said: "The policy declared and the assurances given by Secretary Taft will be strictly adhered to and carried out. As provisional governor I shall exercise the powers and perform the duties provided for by the third article of the appendix to the constitution of Cuba for the preservation of Cuban independence and the protection of life and property. As soon as consistent with the attainment of these ends I shall seek to bring about the restoration of the ordinary agencies and methods of government under the other and general provisions of the Cuban constitution. All the provisions of the constitution and laws which for the time being would be inconsistent with the exercise of the powers provided for by the third article of the appendix must be deemed to be in abeyance. All the other provisions of the constitution and laws continue in full force and effect."

Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary Bacon left Havana Saturday evening on board the battleship Louisiana.

Today's Telegraphic News

Miss Krupp's Wedding.

Essen, Germany, Oct 15.—In the little chapel erected especially for the purpose on the magnificent grounds of the Krupp mansion, the religious ceremony was performed today which made Bertha Krupp, the richest woman in the world, the bride of Lieut. Gustav von Bohlen und Halbach, a penniles German noble. The civil ceremony which legally made the couple man and wife was performed Saturday afternoon.

Although the ceremony was performed in the presence of Kaiser William, representatives of many noble families and aristocratic personages, simplicity was the keynote of the whole wedding. Despite the great wealth of the bride, there was no display of extravagance either in her costume or the decorations. Mingling with the aristocratic and royal wedding guests were deputations of working men representing the employees of the great Krupp industries. Fifty workingmen were in the wedding party and they attended not only the church ceremony but the wedding banquet.

Fraulin Krupp departed from the usual custom of wearing a white wedding gown, and her dress was a simple affair of crepe de chine of lilac color. Two instead of the eight pages usually used at the fashionable weddings bore her train. The bridegroom, according to German custom, wore evening dress.

When the ceremony had been concluded Kaiser William, wearing the uniform of a field marshal, saluted the bride, kissing her on both cheeks. He then congratulated the groom and spoke to Madame Krupp.

A simple wedding banquet was served in the dining room of the Krupp mansion. In an eloquent speech in which he dwelt upon his friendship for the late Baron Krupp, Bertha's father, the Kaiser proposed the health of the young couple.

The bride later made a pilgrimage to the blacksmith shop formally operated by her greatgrandfather and placed a wreath upon a bust erected to his memory.

The marriage will be the occasion for granting many favors to the employees at the Krupp works, and the festivities will extend over a period of two weeks.

The groom will become the head of the Krupp works.

Among the wedding presents received were remembrances from several royal personages. Kaiser William presented a golden cup inscribed with his initials and Sultan Abdul of Turkey sent a diamond necklace to the bride.

Lieut. von Bohlen, who was connected with Germany's diplomatic corps at Rome, brought from that city an autographic letter from Pope Pius X addressed to the bride, wishing her long life and happiness and invoking the Divine blessing on the couple.

Madame Krupp's wedding gift was an automobile and four thoroughbred horses.

Ask Annulment of Election.

Paris, Oct. 15.—Count Boni de Castellaine, whose political and marital troubles have been the subject of so much discussion through France and the United States, may not be allowed to resume his seat in the House of Deputies without a further political fight, although he had twice been returned as victor in the elections. A petition has been presented to Minister of the Interior Clemencean by the republican groups of the district in which Boni was elected asking that his second election be annulled on the grounds that many irregularities were committed by his supporters. Castellaine was elected in the general election but his victory was annulled on grounds of fraud. In the special election which followed he was again successful. It is the special election which his opponents are trying to have overthrown.

Dr. Brouwer on the Stand.

Toms River, Oct. 15.—Dr. Brouwer, charged with poisoning his wife, created the greatest attention of the trial when he was suddenly called to the stand shortly before noon. He broke down completely when questioned in regard to his relations with his wife, and cried like a child. All the emotion which he restrained during the trial overcame him when he was called on to tell his story. His story was told between sobs as he struggled for mastery of his feelings.

Resigned.

Berlin, Oct. 15.—Prince Alander von Hohenlohe-Schilling has resigned his position of president of the District Alsace as a result of the criticism from the throne over his publications the memoirs of the father, the late Chancellor Hohenlohe. This publication has aroused the greatest interest throughout Europe. Among others things it contains an extract from the late Chancellor's diary relating to differences between Kaiser Williams and Prince Bismarck which had to Bismarck's retirement. The Kiser was furious when he read of the publication. As the anger of the Kaiser over the publica ion was well known, the resignation of Prince Hohlehoe has caused little surprise.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 15.—Price movements on the stock market during the first hour were on the down grade. Practically the entire market was simply another shifting in position by the western traders whose change from the Bull to the Bear side left the market without demand. London did very little buying, about 15,000 shares on balance.

Letter to Harlow Brothers

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sirs: It is a great thing for a merchant to have the exclusive sale (in his region, of course,) of anything wanted by everybody.

There are two ways to treat such goods. One is: put the price up and make big profit. The other way is: be fair and make more.

Devoe is the paint that takes least gallons and costs least money a house, a job, a year, a lifetime—no matter how you reckon your costs, except by the gallon—Devoe is the best care-taker and costs least money.

Don't forget that the principal part of the cost of paint is putting it on. Less gallons, less cost. Don't forget that another principal part of economy is long wear; less gallons, less cost and long wear.

It is a great thing to have the exclusive sale of popular goods, of goods that make friends, of goods that enrich both buyer and seller. Devoe is perhaps only ten per cent. better than one or two others; but ten is a plenty—it's 200 or 300 better than many.

There's many a merchant who hasn't found out his goods. It doesn't take a man long to find out that Devoe is the least-money paint and why, no matter which side he is on.

Yours truly,
F W DEVOE & Co.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad, but loving remembrance of our darling baby, GLADYS EBHARDT, aged 19 months, who died October, 15, 1905—one year ago tonight.

Angels came to gather flowers
To deck the throne of Heaven.
He took the purest and the fairest
That God had even given.
Lonely the house and sad the hours
Since Gladys has been gone;
But oh! a brighter home than ours
In Heaven is her own.
God forgive us, but the longing
So intense and full of pain.
Just to clasp our baby darling,
Just to feel her kiss again.

BY MAMMA and PAPA.

Safe in the arms of Jesus,
Safe on his gentle breast,
There by his love o'reshadowed,
Sweetly her soul shall rest.
Too fair a bud for earth is blooming in Heaven

BY HER GRANDPARENTS.

Murder in the First Degree.

At 12:35 o'clock yesterday morning the jury in the Corporation Court brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree in the case of Howard Banks, colored, who had been indicted for the murder of Thomas Elzey, colored, on the 4th instant, in a saloon in the "Petersburg" section of the city. The jury was out 35 minutes.

Late in the afternoon, after all the witnesses had been examined, Banks was placed upon the stand. He stated that he was twenty-one years of age, and had known Elzey for the past nine years; that he purchased the pistol with which he did the shooting from a colored man named Joseph Harris; that on the night of the affair he and two other colored men repaired to the upper story of the saloon where the tragedy occurred and consumed several pints of gin and a dozen bottles of beer. Prior to the drinking, he said, he had freely used cocaine. The prisoner stated that he used cocaine two or three times a week. The narcotic, gin and beer, he said, made him crazy, and he had absolutely no recollection of what happened after the shooting.

Banks was put through a severe cross-examination by Commonwealth's Attorney Brent and frequently contradicted himself.

The court subsequently took a recess until 7 o'clock Saturday night. When it was again called to order a dense crowd filled the room.

Arguments were then begun and Mr. R. D. Brumback, who assisted Commonwealth's Attorney Brent in the prosecution of Banks, made the opening argument. He was followed by Mr. Moncure, for the defense. In the course of his argument the speaker said that to secure evidence for his client he had visited some of the dives in Alexandria, where negroes congregate, and had been appalled at what he had seen. Mr. Moncure described the conditions as similar to those that led to the Atlanta riots and predicted that Alexandria would experience a crisis of that sort unless the Petersburg section is cleaned out speedily. He blamed the police for allowing such a condition of affairs to exist.

Mr. Machen, for the defense, followed, and made a strong plea for the prisoner. He stated that there seemed to be a prejudice against the prisoner and that his trial had been unduly hastened. Mr. Machen was proceeding on this line when he was called to order by Judge Barley, who said he thought Mr. Machen had gone about far enough.

Mr. Brent closed for the prosecution in an able argument.

The case was finally given to the jury.

While the jury was out, Judge Barley stated that the reason he had not said more to Mr. Machen when he called him to order, was that he did not wish to prejudice the jury against the prisoner. He then said that the prisoner had been given a fair trial, and believing Mr. Machen's remarks were unjust he requested an apology from that gentleman.

Mr. Machen, after a brief statement, made the amende honorable, and the court declared that so far as he was concerned the incident was closed.

Before the jury had returned with their verdict, the court warned the spectators that no demonstrations would be allowed. There were none

After the verdict had been announced Mr. Machen, for the defense, asked the court for a new trial, on the grounds that the verdict was contrary to the law and evidence. Judge Barley fixed October 29 as the date on which arguments would be heard for and against this.

Banks retired from the courtroom with a smile on his face, smoking a cigarette.

This is the first instance where a jury has brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree in Alexandria since the early part of 1892.

The following affidavit was made by Mr. L. H. Machen in the Corporation Court on Friday last when he asked a continuation of the trial of Banks:

In the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria, Virginia.

Commonwealth of Virginia vs. Howard Banks, charged with the murder of Thomas Elzey.

This day personally appeared before me in my office in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, Lewis H. Machen, who, after being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is a member of the firm of Machen & Moncure, who were employed as attorneys for the defendant upon the charge of murder, which crime is alleged to have been committed on the night of October 4th, 1906, in the said city of Alexandria, and that said firm was employed on Friday, October 5th, 1906, to represent the said defendant in the trial of said cause. That he appeared in the Police Court for the defendant on Friday, October 5th, 1906, at the the preliminary hearing of said cause, and heard the evidence, and took part in the trial at the said preliminary hearing. That on the same day he also appeared at the coroner's inquest which was held about 12 o'clock, noon; that later during that day about 2 o'clock p. m., the case was given to the grand jury, and an indictment found against the defendant. That on Saturday morning, October 6th, 1906, the prisoner was called for trial. That at that time a motion was made that the case be set to be heard in or about 30 days from that date, the reason assigned being that the deponent was engaged in the said court to be heard on that day, [which was afterward adjusted] and that also he was engaged in the trial of a case which would take place on the following Monday in said court; that he was required, having been duly served in a civil case, to appear at Toledo, Ohio, on Wednesday of the following week, which necessitated his leaving his office on Tuesday morning. That he did attend the taking of testimony in the said case, and returned to his office in Alexandria city, Va., not until Friday morning, October 12th, 1906, at 10 o'clock, which was the earliest hour he could return. That he communicated with his partner, R. C. L. Moncure, when the firm was employed in the case, and that they endeavored together, on Monday night, during a recess of the court in the trial of the case referred to, to secure the necessary evidence and to properly prepare for trial; that after leaving the jurisdiction of the court to appear at Toledo, Ohio, his partner, R. C. L. Moncure, took charge of the case and made every effort to prepare for trial; that the deponent and his associate have both been greatly hampered in the preparation of this trial by reason of the fact that they were previously engaged in a large number of criminal cases to be tried before the Circuit Court for Alexandria county, Va., at its October term, 1906, which convenes Monday, October 15th, 1906; and that your deponent says that there are a large number of persons whom he would desire as witnesses, whom he has been unable to see, and who have not been summoned, and that there may be a number of others who should be seen and should be summoned. That the character of the case is such that it becomes necessary to inquire into the habits and mode of life of the defendant, which necessitates seeing personally a large number of persons whom defendant has associated with, and the time allowed by the court previous to this date has not been sufficient, even though neither of the attorneys were engaged in other matters, for the attorneys to see said witnesses, and therefore your deponent feels that if the case is tried on this date, there will be a miscarriage of justice.

LEWIS H. MACHEN.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of October, 1906.

NEVELL S. GREENWAY,
Deputy Clerk.

The Robbins Shows.

In the Frank A. Robbins & Co., circus, menagerie and hippodrome, which is due in Alexandria on next Saturday, is presenting a gigantic new departure in animal association and training, which may appropriately be labeled "A whole show alone." The credit for this literally colossal idea belongs to Manager Robbins, and it is one the realization of which has required several years of laborious preparation, careful and most expert training and great expense. The present season is signalized by its first public introduction, which involves the simultaneous congregating in one arena of almost every species of wild and domesticated beast that can be trained and safely shown in the open before an audience. In this huge, incongruous assemblage of highly educated and phenomenally proficient quadrupeds are included elephants, zebras, water buffalo, camels, dogs, goats, horses, llamas, ponies, donkeys, dromedaries, mules, bears, monkeys and sacred cattle, and the resulting stupendous and kaleidoscopic spectacle of astonishing action, contrasted rivalry and furore of fun can neither be imagined nor described. It really looks as if a big section of the promised Millennium had broke loose and got here ahead of time.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

John Redwin, alias Smith, colored, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with stealing bed comforts and a bicycle, was fined $50 and sentenced to a term of six months in jail.

Clarence Grady, colored, arrested by Officers Bell and Henderson charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5.

Bettie Jackson, colored, arrested by Officer Nicholson on a similar charge, forfeited $5 collateral.

William Jackson, colored, arrested by Officer Bell charged with fighting, was fined $2.50.

John Lewis, colored, arrested by Officers Smith and Nicholson for disorderly conduct, was fined $2 50.

A white man, arrested by Officers Beach and Lyles charged with assault, was fined $5.

A white man, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed.

Charles Lloyd, a white youth, arrested by Officer Garvey for vagancy, was sent to the work house for four months.

Stole Comforts and Bicycle.

A darkey, who gave his name as John Redwin, but who goes by the name of Smith, was arrested Saturday by Officer Henderson charged with stealing a bicycle from the sidewalk in front of Mr. Lee Lash's saloon on north Fairfax street, and also appropriating to himself three bed comforts which had been displayed in front of Mr. M. Rosenfeld's store on King street. Redwin sold the wheel for $1.50 and subsequently proceeded to the northeastern section of the city for the purpose of disposing of the comforts. The accused was brought before the Police Court this morning and, after the evidence against him had been given, he was asked if he had anything to say in his defense. Redwin arose and told the court that he had every reason to suppose that he was going crazy from the fact that his wife had not been living with him lately. Justice Caton fined him $50 and in addition sentenced him to jail for six months.

Fencing their Property.

The work of building a fence around the property of the Southern Railway Company in the southwestern section of the city was on Saturday afternoon temporarily stopped by the police at the instance of City Engineer Dunn to whom complaint had been made by an employe of the railroad. Chief Goods this morning ordered the removal of several feet of the fencing on Henry street which extends across the building line of Wolfe street. A high fence now surrounds the machine shops, and it is said that the railway company contemplates placing fencing around all their property in the square bounded by Henry, Patrick, Alfred, Wolfe and Wilkes streets. Fencing is now being erected at the round house. The work of building the fence has been resumed.

Close of the Transfer Service.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad transfer service between this city and Shepherd's, on the opposite side of the river, was brought to a close at 6:45 o'clock this morning, the last trip of the barge having been made at that hour, when the whistle of the tugboat Major Brewerton sounded the requium. This service has been in operation for a third of a century, the slips having been constructed and the spur tracks laid in 1873. At first the Southern Railway passenger trains were carried from this city to Shepherd's The barge and tugboat have been used for the transfer of freight trains only.

Death of a Colored Man.

John Bayles, a respected colored resident of Seminary Hill, died suddenly while sitting in a chair in the yard near the intersection of Peyton, Prince, and West streets Saturday afternoon. Dr Moore, the coroner, said heart trouble was the probable cause of death. The deceased was about 50 years old, and for many years he was an attendant at the home of the late Rev. Dr. Packard on Seminary Hill.

Personal.

Miss Mary Lindsay, of this city, was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding in Ashland on Wednesday of Miss Clara Cox, of that town, and Mr. W. J. D. Bell, of Lynchburg.

Miss Sue Jones, of Charlottesville, is the guest of Miss Charlotte Blackburn, on Washington street.

Mrs. George William Ramsay has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Clement E. Conger, at Harrisonburg.

Announcement has been made that the wedding of Miss Agnes Carlyle Bryant and Lieut. John Downs, U. S. N., will take place at noon on October 31st at the home of the bride-elect's father, Captain Herbert Bryant, on north Washington street. Miss Bryant will be attended by her sister Miss Ruth Bryant, as maid of honor.

Miss Jean Eleanor Howden and Mr. Frank Wyeth Horner will be married at Montreal, Can., on the 24th of October. Mr. Horner is a native of Fauquier county, but has resided in Montreal for several years. He will bring his bride to visit his sisters, Misses Rita and Edna Horner, on north Washington street.

Miss Ruth Sypher Clements, daughter of Mr. James E. Clements, of Alexandria county, will leave Paris in the near future, where she is now studying art, and will go to Rome to pursue her work.

Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, of Lynchburg, occupied the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church yesterday morning and last night. Large congregations attended both services. The discourses of Rev. Mr. Sevier were practical and they were delivered in an earnest and interesting manner. He was listened to with close attention.

Mr. William Rogers is seriously ill at his home on the southwest corner of King and Commerce streets.

The Striking Machinists.

There is nothing new to report in the strike of the machinists at the shops of the Southern Railway in this city. It was thought on Saturday last that the men now out would resume work today, as it had been stated that a conference between representatives of the union and the railway company would be held on that day at which a satisfactory basis would be reached and the strike brought to a close. The men had been directed to return to work pending this conference, but the machinists concluded to wait until the result of the conference was announced. It is now said that the parties representing the men and the company will meet today. Several of the special officers which were employed by the company for duty at the depot in this city have resigned their positions. The men who relinquished their positions are not Alexandrians, but had come here from points on the line of the Manassas branch.

A Warning from the Bench.

When the Police Court was called to order this morning the usual crowd (mostly negroes of both sexes) was without the bar. Justice Caton, after glancing at the array of heads, stated that it was the determination of the authorities to enforce the vagrant act, in view of the developments of the past few days, and that all persons not witnesses in the cases before the court must retire. He also said that his action was intended as a warning to all indolent and improvident people who, should they fail to procure employment, will be dealt with as the law directs. The would-be spectators then, by the direction of the officers, filed out of court.

The Henry Street Track.

At seven o'clock this morning the watchmen resumed their stations at the watch boxes on Henry street, but up to noon no train's had been run over that street. The street has not been used for the passage of trains for over a year. Workmen were engaged in laying new rails at the Duke street depot and preparing for a resumption of traffic. A connection between the Henry street tracks and those of the Washington Southern Railway was made last Wednesday. It is said that all Southern Railway freight trains will pass over Henry street now that the transfer service has been abolished.

Sunday School Work.

Rev. Wm. Walter Smith, the head of the New York Sunday School Commission, will give a talk on Sunday schools in the Parish Hall of Christ Church tomorrow (Tuesday) evening at 7:30 o'clock New methods and the use of new materials in the most important work of the church are apparent to all, and these he will present on this occasion. A cordial invitation is extended to all Sunday school teachers and all others in this movement, particularly the parents of those children attending the various Sunday schools, in order that they may understand the system and thereby help the cause onward.

Yesterday.

Yesterday was a beautiful fall day and many people were on the streets, while others enjoyed walks in the country or rides on the boats and trains. The churches were all well attended. Rev. R. Y. Barber recently of Gloucester county but who has just been called to Mississippi, occupied the pulpit of Christ Church in the morning and Grace Church at night. At the Second Presbyterian Church the services were conducted by Rev. Joseph R. Sevier, of Lynchburg. At the other churches the resident clergy occupied the pulpits.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The grand jury was sworn and brought in an indictment against John Wright, colored, for assault on Thomas Gooding, and criminal assault on Miss Mable Risley, and for the murder of a colored man named Boney Jackson.

Wright is still in jail in Washington, but, it is said, will soon be brought to the county on requisition papers.

Charter.

A charter has been granted to the Wm. L. Bear & Co., incorporated, Alexandria. The officers are Wm. L. Bear, president; G. C. Kauffman, E. B. Kauffman, T. M. Meloy, A. M. Burger, vice president; all of York, Pa. The maximum capital is $500,000, minimum capital, $500,000.

On the Line Again.

The Baltimore steamers are running again. The Northumberland left this port yesterday evening, and the Norfolk steamer, which arrived up this morning, reports meeting the Calvert, which left Baltimore Saturday, in the river on her way up.

Directors Elected.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Chr. Heurich Brewing Company, held in Messrs. Norton & Boothe's office today, the following directors were elected: Chr. Heurich, A. B. Coppes, Leon Tobriner, Aug. Daetz, Chas. Jacobsen, Chas. H. Dismer and Chas. Meyer.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jameson on Saturday.

Albert C., the three-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo R. Iden, died yesterday.

An overcoat was stolen Saturday night from the front of the store on the corner of King and Washington streets.

The steamer River Queen arrived at Woodall's shipyard, Baltimore, yesterday from Washington. She will be docked and repaired.

Workmen are engaged in laying granite curbing on Fairfax street, between King and Cameron, preparatory to paving the square with vitrified brick.

James Kennedy, colored, was sent to the alms house yesterday. He was ill when he left this city and grew worse when he reached the alms house. His death followed last night.

At a meeting of the teachers of the public schools, called by City Superintendent Kemper, on Saturday last, Mr. W. H. Greenwell, by request, gave an interesting talk on school management.

A fire in a pile of rubbish in the northeastern part of the city Saturday night caused some alarm. The flames were extinguished by a plug stream operated by members of the Columbia Fire Company.

It is said that three young ladies were intercepted by a strange negro on Alfred street, between King and Prince, Saturday night. The negro seized one of the young ladies, but their outcry caused him to relinquish his hold and run away.

A colored woman named Julia Jones, living in the exreme southeastern section of the city, was bitten on the hand by a dog, supposed to have been mad, a few days ago. Her injury was of such a nature that she was compelled to procure medical attention. The dog was subsequently killed.

The game of football played Saturday afternoon by the Episcopal High School team and the Central High School of Washington resulted in a score of 0 to 0. The game was interesting throughout. Many of the Episcopalians were "knocked out" long before the conclusion of the game and their places were filled by members of the second team.

Real Love Letters of a Real Girl

"I am not going to beat the big drum of sentiment and make a wailful noise nothing is so dead as a dead infatuation. The more a person has been infatuated, the more he resents an attempt to galvanize the dull, dead thing into life. I am wise, you see, to the end. And reasonable, too, I hope. And brave. And brave, I tell you. Do you think I will be a coward and cry out? I make you a present of everything; of the love and happy thoughts, of the pleasant dreams and plans, of the little prayers sent up, and the blessings called down—there were a great many every day—of the kisses, and all the dear sweetness. Take it all. I want nothing from you in return. But do you suppose that, having given you all this, I am going to give you my soul as well? To moan my life away, my beautiful life? You are not worth anything, hardly. You are unstable, invertebrate. My life shall be splendid in spite of you. You shall not cheat me of one single chance of heaven."—(From Fraulein Schmidt and Mr. Anstruther in the November Delineator.

A FARMER'S SHOCKING CRIME.

Details of a most shocking crime came to light in Springfield, Mo., yesterday by the arrest and incarceration at Houston, in Texas county, 40 miles east of Springfield, of Jodie Hamilton, a farmer, who on Friday murdered in cold blood a neighbor named Barney Parsons, his wife and their three children, aged 1, 4 and 11 years.

Hamilton has confessed to exterminating the family and is now guarded by an armed force of deputies in the little stone jail at Houston, which is 20 miles from the nearest railway and telegraph station. The quintuple tragedy occurred in a sparsely settled country.

Parsons, who went to Texas county from north Missouri two years ago, decided to return to his former home, and disposed of his crops to Hamilton. Early Friday morning Parsons loaded a part of his household goods and the members of his family into a wagon and started overland for the northern part of the State.

He was driving along a lonely country road, a short distance from the house which he had just vacated, when he was met by Hamilton. A quarrel ensued, and Hamilton, while Parsons was off his guard, fired the contents of both barrels of a shotgun into the body of his adversary, killing him instantly.

He then felled Mrs. Parsons with a blow from the butt of his gun, crushing her skull. He dragged her from the wagon and clubbed her to death in the road. Then he clubbed the life out of the three helpless children.

When he had finished his bloody work he tossed the bodies of his victims into the wagon, drove to the Big Piney river, about a mile distant from the scene of the tragedy, and threw the bodies into the water. They were found by fishermen.

Shortly after the news of the crime had been received at Houston, Hamilton rode into town on a mule that was recognized as one belonging to Parsons. He was arrested and locked up in jail. Parsons, who came to Texas county two years ago from the northern part of Missouri, was a quiet, industrious farmer and never had trouble of any sort. Hamilton has also been favorably known over the entire county.

Duel Recalled.

Henry Winthrop Gray, who served successively as park commissioner, fire commissioner and a special commissioner of jurors in New York between 1891 and 1896, and who came into the limelight when he was a young man because of a duel he fought with a former friend, John G. Heckscher, on the Canadian border, died Friday. He was born in New York.

The duel between Mr. Gray and Mr. Heckscher was the social sensation of 1873. Mr. Gray's wife was a daughter of William R. Travers. Mr. and Mrs. Gray and Mr. Heckscher had been friends long before Mr. Gray's marriage, and he frequently visited the Gray home on Mr. Gray's invitation. Gossip linked the names of Mrs. Gray and Mr. Heckscher in such a way that the friends soon became estranged.

Mr. Gray challenged Mr. Heckscher to fight on Canadian soil. Mr. Heckscher accepted the challenge and the two met on the American shore of Lake Champlain and went over into Canada. On the morning of June 25, 1873, they stood at 12 paces to shoot at each other. The late A. W. Clason was second for Mr. Heckscher, and it is said that Carroll Livingston performed a similar service for Mr. Gray.

The men were told to fire at the drop of the handkerchief. Mr. Gray did so, and the bullet went through the folds of Mr. Heckscher's frock coat, doing him no harm. Then his opponent fired in the air. The party returned to New York.

Mr. Gray got a divorce and in 1889 married Matilde Frelinghuysen, daughter of Secretary of State Frelinghuysen. Mr. Heckscher's first wife died in 1891, and five months later he married Mrs. Gray, who had resumed her maiden name. She died in 1900.

UNDERWEAR.
Skin Thoroughly Protected. Breathe Freely.
Abrupt and unexpected changes in the weather are now in progress. A freezing night is apt to follow an Indian summer day. At such a season of the year it is virtually important that the body be given proper protection especially is this true in the matter of underwear. Heavy outside clothing is of practically no avail, if the clothing next to the skin, if the underwear is not of the proper kind. The rules of health demand at this season of the year that the skin in addition to being thoroughly protected, should be allowed to breath freely. Our underwear combines these two most important features, and we are showing many different styles in Union and Two-piece suits for the whole family. Remember, a word of advice in time is worth much useless advice when it is too late. Now is the time to buy

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?
If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.
Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.
A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.
The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.
On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.
You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.
There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.
